

Fylde Bird Club Annual Photographic Competition

Each year the Fylde Bird Club holds a photographic competition. All current members who also paid their subscription in the previous year are invited to enter and vote for their favourite photographs. Members may submit up to TWO photographs for the Fylde category, ONE photograph for the British Isles category, and ONE photograph for the World category. All categories are described below:

- Fylde (Fylde coast recording area)
- British Isles (does NOT include a photograph taken in the Fylde)
- World (does NOT include a photograph taken in the Fylde or British Isles)

Digital photographs taken in the calendar year prior to the competition are eligible. All entries to be submitted to Paul Ellis (by e-mail or by flash drive). It will be helpful if all entries could reach Paul one week prior to the competition, although it will still be possible to enter on the night. If you have any queries please contact Paul: Tel. 07788 264116; E-mail: paul.ellis24@btopenworld.com

Competition rules

A maximum of TWO images for the Fylde category per photographer

Only ONE image for the British Isles category per photographer

Only ONE image for the World category per photographer

All photographs must be taken during the previous year

No photographs taken at the nest

No photographs of captive or trapped birds

Please submit digital photographs only; slides/hard copies/prints will not be accepted (but may be submitted as scanned images).

The top three photographs in each category will be announced.

Winning entries will be available for viewing on the Fylde Bird Club photographic competition webpage: <http://www.fyldebirdclub.org/photocomp.htm>.
